Survivor - Plan a series of challenges for a day and last person standing, or whoever won the most, wins.

Game Shows - Set up a mock game show based on any show on television, such as Jeopardy!, Who Wants to be a Millionaire, or The Price is Right. Students can play for a fee and charge admission for others to watch. Ask local businesses to donate prizes for the winners.

American Idol/ Cabaret Night - Invite students to show their skills! Make the contest for singers only, or divide into groups so musicians can participate, too. Sell desserts and beverages.

Coordinate a Scavenger Hunt - Students are charged a small fee to participate. Think off campus locations, too, like the mall, parks, etc.

Bachelor/Bachelorette Auction – Ask students to volunteer to be “auctioned” for a day to the highest bidder. Ask local businesses to donate prizes such as dinner certificates, movie passes, flowers, etc.

Dance Marathon - Reserve your school’s athletic center and ask a local DJ to donate their services. Have students obtain pledges from relatives and friends. Give each hour a theme, run dance contests, and give prizes to best dancer, best costume, etc. Set a time limit and dance the night away!

Host a Concert with a School or Local Band – Hold the concert at school, indoors or outdoors, or contact a local restaurant or bar that will donate the cover charge.

Plan a Talent Show - Sell tickets in the community and school for a talent show held at your school. Students and/or professors perform to show off their talents.

Finals Survival Kits - Sell kits to students during finals week that include late-night snacks, #2 pencils, stress balls, energy drinks, and other must-have-to-pass items.

Rummage Sale - Have students and staff donate old items such as CDs, movies, DVDs, jewelry, clothes, games, books, etc., and sell them for a reasonable price.

Have an Eating Contest – From pies to hot dogs to doughnuts to chicken wings – the possibilities are endless! Talk to local businesses about donating food items and prizes.

Request-A-Thon - Great for college radio stations! Designate a few days when people can drop by the station and request and dedicate a song for a set donation.

Just in Case You Need an Excuse to Party
Charge each person admission for any theme you choose!
